

TAFE Community Alliance meeting with Tim Crakanthorp 10/11/2022

TCA met with NSW Shadow Minister for Skills and TAFE, Tim Crakanthorp, on 10 November. Arising from that meeting, the following questions have been asked in Parliament

9789 - Skills and Training - TAFE RESOURCES

Primrose, Peter to the Minister for Education and Early Learning representing the Minister for Skills and Training, Minister for Science, Innovation and Technology, Minister for Enterprise, Investment and Trade, and Minister for Sport.

The Minister must respond to my questions by 23 January 2023 and the answers will be published at <https://www.parliament.nsw.gov.au/lc/papers/pages/ganda-tracking-details.aspx?pk=94235>

- (1) What are the names of all third-party companies contracted by TAFE NSW to develop TAFE resources, including assessments and course materials from 1 April 2019 to 16 December 2022?
- (2) For each third-party company provided in question (1), by individual contract (in the case a company has had more than one contract):
 - (a) What was the value of each contract?
 - (b) What were the types of resources required to be produced for each contract?
 - (c) What were the required number of resources to be produced in each contract?
 - (d) How many of these resources were received on time?
 - (e) How many resources were sent back to the contractor for rework?
 - (f) How many resources had to be reworked by TAFE NSW staff before they could be used?
 - (g) How many resources are still outstanding?
- (3) How many TAFE NSW staff are required to:
 - (a) Manage the contracts, including budget allocations?
 - (b) Monitor the receipt and quality of the resources received in each contract?
- (4) Does TAFE NSW produce any of its own resources?
 - (a) If so, are these sold to other registered training organisations to provide income for TAFE NSW?
 - (b) If not, when did TAFE NSW stop producing its own resources?

Question asked on 19 December 2022 (session 57-1) and published in Questions & Answers Paper No. 893

- (5) What are the names of all third-party companies contracted by TAFE NSW to develop TAFE resources, including assessments and course materials from 1 April 2019 to 16 December 2022?
- (6) For each third-party company provided in question (1), by individual contract (in the case a company has had more than one contract):
- (a) What was the value of each contract?
 - (b) What were the types of resources required to be produced for each contract?
 - (c) What were the required number of resources to be produced in each contract?
 - (d) How many of these resources were received on time?
 - (e) How many resources were sent back to the contractor for rework?
 - (f) How many resources had to be reworked by TAFE NSW staff before they could be used?
 - (g) How many resources are still outstanding?
- (7) How many TAFE NSW staff are required to:
- (a) Manage the contracts, including budget allocations?
 - (b) Monitor the receipt and quality of the resources received in each contract?
- (8) Does TAFE NSW produce any of its own resources?
- (a) If so, are these sold to other registered training organisations to provide income for TAFE NSW?
 - (b) If not, when did TAFE NSW stop producing its own resources?

Question asked on 19 December 2022 (session 57-1) and published in Questions & Answers Paper No. 893